

Letter to part time Graduate Diploma students sent June 2016

From 1 January 2017, the Graduate Diploma in Education ceases to be accredited with the Teachers Registration Board of South Australia (TRB SA). However, students who have enrolled before 1 January 2017, upon successful completion of the program, are still eligible to be registered by the TRB SA for the purposes of teaching. In line with University policy, the School of Education is putting in place arrangements to ensure that currently enrolled students are able to complete the requirements of the program in a timely manner.

You have been identified as a student who is currently enrolled in the Graduate Diploma in Education at the University of Adelaide but not scheduled to complete in 2016. A transitioning pathway will be offered for part-time students for academic years 2017 and 2018 to enable affected students to complete the program in a timely manner and proceed to seek registration with the TRB SA.

The transitioning study plan is attached. It lists the courses available in the 2-year transition period to enable the completion of 24 units to complete the degree. Please note that the teaching periods have been changed from Semesters to Terms to align more closely with the term dates for secondary schools. The teaching dates for 2017 are specified in the table below.

Term 1	23 January to 14 April 2017
Term 2	17 April to 30 June 2017
Term 3	10 July to 24 September 2017
Term 4	2 October to 17 December 2017

We strongly urge part-time students to complete their studies by 2017 or, at the latest, 2018 as we cannot guarantee that the TRB will accept registration of the Graduate Diploma in Education qualification indefinitely.

If you wish to discuss your future options further, please contact a Student Advisor for the Faculty of Arts, on telephone: 8313 5245 or arts@adelaide.edu.au
