

THE A.J. SCHULZ BEQUEST

In 1957, the late Adolf John Schulz bequeathed £2,250 to the University to promote the study of the German language, literature and culture generally.

Rules

In accordance with the terms of the bequest, the following Rules are hereby made for the:-

- A J Schulz German SACE Prize;
- A J Schulz Prizes for German Culture; and
- A J Schulz German Prize for Honours.

A J Schulz German SACE Prize

Name

The Prize shall be called the “A J Schulz German SACE Prize” and shall be available for award annually.

Value

The value of the prize will be $100.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the prize candidates must have:-

- completed the continuer’s stream of German at the SACE Stage II Examination;
- accepted a place in any degree in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Adelaide; and
- be enrolled in a course in German at the time the prize is awarded.

Selection Criteria

The Prize shall be awarded to the candidate who obtains the highest mark in the continuer’s stream of German at the SACE Stage II Examination.

Administration

Should there be no candidate of sufficient merit in any given year, then the Prize shall not be awarded and the funds may be used in a subsequent year, or added to the capital sum in the Endowment Fund, as determined by the Head of School.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University’s legal obligations and policies.

A J Schulz Prizes for German Culture

Name

Two Prizes shall be available for award each year called the “A J Schulz Prizes for German Culture”.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prizes, candidates must be enrolled in a Bachelor degree program of study at the University of Adelaide in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

Value

- Prize 1: The value of the Prize for German II Culture shall be $150.
Prize 2: The value of the Prize for German III Culture shall be $250.

Selection Criteria

- Prize 1: One prize shall be awarded to the student who presents the best essay in German IIA and/or IIB Culture.
Prize 2: One Prize shall be awarded to the student who presents the best essay from German IIIA and/or IIIB Culture.

The Head of the Department of German Studies shall select the best essay in each case.

Administration

If, for either Prize there is no candidate of sufficient merit in any given year, then that Prize shall not be awarded and the funds may be used in a subsequent year for that Prize, or added to the capital sum in the Endowment Fund, as determined by the Head of the Department of German Studies.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University’s legal obligations and policies.

A J Schulz German Prize for Honours

Name

The Prize shall be called the “A J Schulz Prize for Honours” and shall be available for award annually.

Value

The value of the Prize shall be $250.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must be completing their Honours degree of the Bachelor of Arts in the Department of German Studies in the year for which the prize is awarded, and proceed to postgraduate work in German studies at the University of Adelaide.

Selection Criteria

The award will be made by the Faculty of Arts on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of German Studies to the top Honours student in German studies who has produced the best thesis in the year for which the prize is awarded.

The Prize will be awarded on enrolment in a German studies postgraduate program of study at the University of Adelaide.

Variations

The University may vary the Rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.

Rules approved by Deputy Vice Chancellor & Vice President (Academic) 19 November 2018