

THE EDITH HÜBBE AND HARRIET COOK PRIZE

Background

Whereas the sum of £500 has been paid to the University by the past pupils of the Knightsbridge School for the purpose of founding, with the income thereof, a prize in memory of the late Mrs Edith Hübbe and the late Miss Harriet Cook, former Headmistresses of that school.

The following rules now apply:-

1. The prize shall be called 'The Edith Hübbe and Harriet Cook Prize'.
2. The value of the prize shall be $400 or as determined by the Faculty, and shall be available for award annually.
3. The prize shall be awarded to the student who has attained the highest results in an Advanced Level English course (other than Australian literature courses).
4. If the examiners deem that two or more candidates are of equal merit, the prize shall be divided equally amongst the candidates.
5. If in any particular year, the examiners consider that no candidate is suitable for the prize, then no award shall be made.
6. These rules may be varied from time to time by the Faculty but the title and purpose shall not be changed.
