The Faculty of Arts has one of the largest cohort of students from a low socio-economic status (SES) background and recognises that students are finding it difficult to balance their time at university with work and family responsibilities.

The Faculty of Arts Student Bursary has been established to aid students with their educational expenses. The bursary will be awarded as a one-off grant to domestic and international students who can demonstrate they are from a low SES status background and have a financial need.

Amount awarded: Amount awarded will be on a case-by-case basis to a maximum of $1,000 per student.

Eligibility:

To be eligible to submit an application you must:

- Come from a low socio-economic background
- Be undertaking an active full-time load in an undergraduate program in the Faculty of Arts in 2019 and won't be graduating before the end of Semester 1, 2020
- Demonstrate financial need
- Have satisfactory academic merit
- Have not received the Faculty of Arts Student Bursary before

Applications must include: documentary evidence of financial need such as income tested Commonwealth income support, payment such as Youth Allowance, Austudy, ABSTUDY benefits, payslips, timesheets or other details of financial circumstances.

A selection committee will consider all applications and notify applicants of the outcome.

Students who are recipients of the Faculty of Arts Student Bursary will be required to provide a testimonial to the Faculty of Arts on the use of the funds and how it impacted on their education.
