
Chilla Bulbeck Prize Rules

Establishment

This Prize has been established by the University as a result of a contribution by UnitingSA, which is community-based and assists over 20,000 people each year across the life continuum, from the very young to the elderly. Working across many disciplines and sectors, UnitingSA is a strong advocate for positive social change, firmly believing that everybody has the right to participate and flourish in their community no matter their age, their gender, their history or their cultural background.

This Prize has been established to honour the contributions and work of Professor Emerita Chilla Bulbeck, a retired staff member of the Department of Sociology, Criminology & Gender Studies in the School of Social Sciences.

The following rules are hereby made:

Rules

1. There shall be a prize known as “The Chilla Bulbeck Prize”.
2. The value of the Prize will be $400.00.
3. The Prize will be awarded by the University annually for a minimum of five years commencing in 2017 until otherwise determined by the University after discussions with the contributor.
4. The Head of School will award the Prize to the student enrolled in SOCI 1003 Introduction to Sociology and SOCI 1004 Social Problems who has demonstrated most improvement throughout the semester in terms of essay writing and who has also actively engaged in and understood the social justice implications discussed weekly in the lecture and tutorial sessions.
5. If the Head of School deems that there is more than one candidate of equal merit, the Prize shall be divided equally among the candidates.
6. If in any particular year the Head of School considers that no candidate is suitable for the Prize, then no award shall be made.
7. The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University’s legal obligations and policies.
